

ABOUT THE SHOW

Sports Jeopardy! combines the excitement and prestige of America's Favorite Quiz Show® with the rich and diverse world of sports. Years in the planning, the series will be hosted by Emmy-winning sportscaster Dan Patrick, and promises to bring fans the sports quiz show they've been waiting for. The weekly 30 minute program will be presented by Crackle, an entertainment network and studio that produces original content and distributes programming across the Internet, in the living room, and on a wide range of devices.

ABOUT THE GAME

In nearly every way, Sports Jeopardy! will mirror the game play of the show we all know and love. Two rounds of play will culminate in a Final Sports Jeopardy! clue. One Daily Double in the first round, two in the second, and contestants must always phrase their responses in the form of a question. Sports Jeopardy! will feature extensive video footage from those moments in sports that everyone remembers, coupled with the distinctive writing that has made Jeopardy! the gold standard of the quiz show world for 30 years.

Original run is slated to premiere on Crackle in October and will consist of 52 weekly shows.

- There will be 50 regular, "stand alone" shows, with 3 new players in each show.
- Contestants on Sports Jeopardy! will be playing for points. Winners will receive $5,000, 2nd place $2,000 and 3rd gets $1,000.
- The season will conclude with a two-episode "Championship Match" featuring the 3 contestants with the season's highest point totals. The winner will take home a cash prize of $50,000.
